UNIT OWNERSHIP ACT

Chapter 825 General Statutes of Connecticut of 1958.
Revised to January 1, 1975.

(Old law affecting condominiums declared before January 1, 1977)

II. UNIT OWNERSHIP ACT - Chapter 825, of the General Statutes of 1958 revised to January 1, 1975.

This version of Chapter 825 affects all condominiums declared up until January 1, 1977. It is a much simpler statute, and does not give a condominium as broad power, flexibility or protection as the Condominium Act of 1976. It also does not contain the consumer protection provisions of that statute.

This book is the only generally published source of the old act.

This revision is not indexed. However, the numbering system of the Condominium Act of 1976 follows the old act. The index for the new act should lead you to approximate provisions of the old act, if that act dealt with that subject.

CHAPTER 825

Sec. 47-69. Applicability of chapter. This chapter shall be applicable only to property, the sole owner or all of the owners of which submit the same to the provisions herein by executing and recording a declaration as provided in sections 47-70 and 47-71. For the purposes of sections 47-68 to 47-72, inclusive, 47-74, 47-77(a), 47-79, 47-80, 47-82(a), 47-87(a), 47-88(a), 47-89 and 47-90, execution of the declaration shall mean signing and acknowledging the same.

Sec. 47-70. Declaration. The declaration shall contain the following information:

(a) A description of the land on which the buildings and improvements are, or are to be, located together with the title of and reference to a survey of such land prepared and certified substantially correct by a licensed surveyor or engineer and filed prior to or simultaneously with such declaration and the floor plans as hereinafter provided;

(b) a description of the building, stating the number of stories and basements, the number of units and the principal materials of which it is, or is to be, constructed;

(c) the identification number of each unit, and its location, approximate area, number of rooms and immediate common area to which it has access, and any other data necessary for its proper identification;

(d) a description of the common areas and facilities;

(e) a description of the limited common areas and facilities, if any, stating to which unit or units their use is reserved or the method of determining to which unit or units their use is reserved;

(f) an indication of the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appertaining to each unit and its owner. The total percentage of the undivided interests of all of the units shall equal one hundred;

(g) a statement of the purposes for which the building and each of the units are intended, including restrictions, if any, as to use;

(h) the name of a person to receive service of process in the cases hereinafter provided;

(i) a copy of the bylaws;

(j) any further details in connection with the property which the persons executing the declaration may deem desirable to set forth consistent with this chapter;

(k) the method by which the declaration may be amended, consistent with the provisions of this chapter;

(l) the name of the building.

Sec. 47-71. Recording of declaration and other instruments. (a) The declaration, any amendment or amendments thereto, any subsequent declaration, the bylaws, any amendment or amendments thereto and any instrument by which the provisions of this chapter may be waived, shall be recorded and shall not be of legal effect until recorded on the land records of the municipality in which the property lies. Such instruments shall be indexed in the grantor volume under the name of the building or buildings and shall contain a reference to the file number of the floor plans of the building affected thereby. In the event the land records contain separate grantor indexes for persons and corporations, such instruments shall be indexed in the grantor volume for persons.

(b) After the original declaration or a subsequent declaration or the bylaws contained therein has been modified or amended a total of five times, the board of directors shall prepare a new revised declaration with revised bylaws attached thereto, incorporating all modifications and amendments to date, which instrument shall be recorded forthwith.

(c) Simultaneously with the recording of the original declaration there shall be filed in the office of the town clerk of the municipality in which the units lie a set of the floor plans of the building or buildings showing the layout, location, unit numbers and dimensions of the units, stating the name of the building or buildings, containing a reference to the original declaration and the date thereof and bearing the verified statement of a registered architect or licensed professional engineer certifying that the floor plans are an accurate copy of portions of the plans of the building or buildings as filed with and approved by the municipal or other governmental subdivision having jurisdiction over the issuance of permits for the construction of buildings. If not previously on file, a survey of the land upon which the buildings and improvements are located shall be attached to the floor plans. Such plans shall be kept by the town clerk in a separate file for each building, or buildings, numbered serially in the order of receipt and designated "unit ownership." In the event the floor plans are modified, new floor plans shall be prepared and filed, containing all the identifications and references of the original floor plans, numbered identically as the original floor plans, filed therewith and designated "unit ownership—floor plans modified (indicate date)."

(d) Each conveyance of any legal interest in a unit shall be recorded and indexed similarly to the conveyance of any interest in real property. No instrument conveying or purporting to convey such an interest shall be effectual against any other person but the grantor and his heirs until recorded on the land records of the municipality in which the property lies.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 12; 1969, P.A. 115, S. 1, 2; 1971, P.A. 813, S. 5)

Sec. 47-72. Deeds of units. Deeds of units shall include the following particulars:

(a) A description of the land as provided in section 47-70, or the date, title of and reference to the survey describing such land;

(b) the date of the most recent declaration and the volume and page of the land records where recorded;

(c) the identification number of the unit in the declaration;

(d) any further details which the grantor and grantee may deem desirable to set forth consistent with the declaration and this chapter.

Sec. 47-73. Unit as real property. Each unit, together with its undivided interest in the common areas and facilities, shall for all purposes constitute real property.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 4.)

Sec. 47-74. Rights of unit owners. (a) Each unit owner shall be entitled to the exclusive ownership and possession of his unit.

(b) (1) Each unit owner shall be entitled to an undivided interest in the common areas and facilities in the percentage expressed in the declaration. Such percentage shall be computed initially by taking as a basis the fair value of the unit at the date of the declaration in relation to the fair value of all the units having an interest in the common areas and facilities and after completion of all the units on the property, such percentage may be changed as hereinafter set forth. (2) The percentage of the undivided interest of each unit owner in the common areas and facilities as expressed in the declaration shall have a permanent character and shall not be changed without the consent of seventy-five per cent of all of the unit owners expressed in a recorded amended declaration but any such change shall provide that the percentage of undivided interest of each unit owner in the common areas and facilities shall be equal to the percentage that the assessed value of such unit bears to all of the units on the property as such assessed value was fixed by the municipality on the grand list next preceding the date of such amendment and in addition the declaration may contain provisions relating to the appropriation, taking or condemnation by eminent domain by a federal, state or local government, or instrumentality thereof, including, but not limited to, reapportionment or other change of the common interest appurtenant to each unit or portion thereof remaining after a partial appropriation, taking or condemnation. The percentage of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities shall not be separated from the unit to which it appertains and shall be deemed to be conveyed or encumbered with the unit even though such interest is not expressly mentioned or described in the conveyance or other instrument. (3) The common areas and facilities shall remain undivided and no unit owner or any other person shall bring any action for partition or division of any part thereof, unless the property has been removed from the provisions of this chapter. Any covenant to the contrary shall be null and void. (4) Each unit owner may use the common areas and facilities in accordance with the purpose for which they were intended without hindering or encroaching upon the lawful rights of the other unit owners. (5) The necessary work of maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and the making of any additions or improvements thereto shall be carried out only as provided herein and in the declaration and in the bylaws. (6) The association of unit owners shall have the irrevocable right, to be exercised by the manager or board of directors, to have access to each unit from time to time during reasonable hours as may be necessary for the maintenance, repair or replacement of any of the common areas and facilities therein or accessible therefrom, or for making emergency repairs therein necessary to prevent damage to the common areas and facilities or to another unit or units and the bylaws may contain such reasonable rules and regulations for the administration of this provision as the privacy of the units and the protection of such units and their contents from burglary or larceny may require.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 5, 6; 1971, P.A. 743: 813, S. 7; June, 1971, P.A. 7, S. 2.)

Sec. 47-75. Obligations of unit owners. (a) Each unit owner shall comply strictly with the bylaws and with the administrative rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto, and with the covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in the declaration or in the deed to his unit. Failure to so comply shall be ground for an action to recover damages or for injunctive relief, or both, maintainable by the manager or board of directors on behalf of the association of unit owners or, in a proper case, by an aggrieved unit owner. (b) No unit owner shall do any work which may jeopardize the soundness or safety of the property, reduce the value thereof or impair any easement, right, appurtenance or other hereditament constituting a common area and facility without the unanimous consent of all the other unit owners.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 7, 8.)

Sec. 47-76. Allocation of profits and expenses. The common profits of the property shall be distributed among, and the common expenses shall be charged to, the unit owners according to the percentage of the undivided interest in the common areas and facilities.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 9.)

Sec. 47-77. Assessment of common expenses. (a) All sums assessed by the association of unit owners, but unpaid, for the share of the common expenses chargeable to any unit shall constitute a lien on such unit prior to all other liens, except only (1) tax liens on the unit in favor of any assessing authority and special district, including any state and federal tax liens, and (2) all sums unpaid on mortgages of record. Such lien shall exist from the due date of the assessment as established by the association of unit owners, and shall be perfected by filing a notice of lien signed by one of the members of the board of directors or by the manager on the land records of the municipality in which the property lies, and by leaving a true and attested copy thereof with the unit owner against whom such lien is claimed or at his usual place of abode, or, if such unit owner resides outside the municipality in which the property lies, by mailing such copy to him at the place where he resides. Such notice of lien shall contain the address of the property, volume and page of record of the declaration, the name of the record owner of the unit, the unit designation, the amount due and the date when due. Such lien shall be limited and discharged in accordance with sections 49-39 and 49-40. Such lien may be foreclosed by suit by the manager or board of directors, acting on behalf of the unit owners, in like manner as a mortgage of real property including reimbursement for costs and reasonable attorneys' fees. The manager or board of directors, acting on behalf of the unit owners, shall have power, unless prohibited by the declaration, to bid in the unit at foreclosure sale, and to acquire and hold, lease, mortgage and convey the same. Suit to recover a money judgment for unpaid assessments shall be maintainable without foreclosing or waiving the lien securing the same.

(b) Where a mortgagee or a purchaser at a foreclosure sale obtains title to a unit, such acquirer of title, his heirs, successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the entire unpaid share of the common expenses or assessments by the association of unit owners chargeable to such unit which became due prior to the acquisition of title to such unit by such acquirer, but such expenses or assessments shall become common expenses collectible from all of the unit owners, including such acquirer, his heirs, successors and assigns.

Sec. 47-78. Owner may not exempt himself from liability. No unit owner may exempt himself from liability for his contribution toward the common expenses by waiver of the use or enjoyment of any of the common areas and facilities or by abandonment of his unit.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 19.)

Sec. 47-79. Collection of taxes and assessments. Taxes, assessments, including special assessments, and other charges of this state or of any political subdivision, or of any special improvement district, or any other taxing or assessing authority shall be assessed against and collected on each individual unit, each of which shall be carried on the tax books as a separate and distinct entity for that purpose and not on the building or property as a whole. Neither the building, the property nor any of the common areas and facilities shall be deemed to be a parcel, but each unit shall be deemed to have an undivided interest therein and assessments against any such unit shall include such proportionate undivided interest. In the event the land or the building, including common areas and facilities, is separately owned, and leased to the unit owner for a period of not less than fifty years, and such lease, duly recorded, provides that the lessee shall pay all such taxes, such unit and its percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities shall be deemed to be a parcel and shall be separately assessed and taxed in the name of the lessee.

Sec. 47-80. Bylaws. (a) The administration of every property shall be governed by bylaws, a copy of which shall be annexed to the declaration and made a part thereof. No modification of or amendment to the bylaws shall be of legal effect until set forth in an amendment to the declaration and such amendment is recorded.

(b) The bylaws shall provide for the following: (1) The election from among the unit owners of a board of directors, the number of persons constituting and the term of office of such board; a provision that the terms of at least one-third of such board shall expire annually; the powers and duties of the board; the compensation, if any, of the directors; the method of removal from such board; the powers of the board in engaging the services of a manager or managing agent; provided, during the first five years following the recording of the declaration pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and so long as the declarant is the owner of any units, the bylaws may provide for a board of directors which consists of persons other than unit owners, except that if the declarant owns, or has a recorded option to purchase, any land contiguous to any of said units, on petition of seventy-five per cent of the unit owners lodged with the board of directors, an election for the board of directors shall be held at which only unit owners shall be eligible for election; and if the declarant does not own, or have a recorded option to purchase, any such contiguous land, on petition of sixty per cent of the unit owners lodged with the board of directors, any election of the board of directors shall be held at which only unit owners shall be eligible for election; (2) the method of calling meetings of the unit owners; what percentage, if other than a majority, of unit owners shall constitute a quorum; (3) election of a president from among the board of directors who shall preside over the meetings of the board of directors and of the association of unit owners; (4) election of a secretary who shall keep the minute book wherein resolutions shall be recorded; (5) election of a treasurer who shall keep the financial records and books of account; (6) maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities and payments therefor, including the method of approving payment vouchers; (7) the manner of collecting from the unit owners their share of the common expenses; (8) designation and removal of personnel necessary for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the common areas and facilities; (9) the method of adopting and amending administrative rules and regulations governing the details of the operation and use of the common areas and facilities; (10) such restrictions on and requirements respecting the use and maintenance of the units and the use of the common areas and facilities not set forth in the declaration, as are designed to prevent unreasonable interference with the use of their respective units and of the common areas and facilities by the several unit owners; (11) such provisions governing the alienation, conveyance, sale, leasing, purchase, ownership and occupancy of units as are deemed desirable; (12) such provisions permitting the establishment of reserves to provide for maintenance, improvements, replacements, working capital, bad debts, depreciation, obsolescence, and similar purposes as are deemed desirable; (13) a provision that fifty per cent of the unit owners may at any time modify or amend the bylaws, but that no amendment shall be contrary to the requirements of this section; (14) other provisions deemed necessary for the administration of the property consistent with this chapter.

Sec. 47-81. Records. The manager or board of directors shall keep detailed, accurate records, in chronological order, of the receipts and expenditures affecting the common areas and facilities, specifying and itemizing the maintenance and repair expenses of the common areas and facilities and any other expenses incurred. Such records and the vouchers authorizing the payments shall be available for examination by the unit owners at convenient hours of weekdays.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 18.)

Sec. 47-82. Liens against units. (a) Subsequent to recording the declaration as provided in this chapter, and while the property remains subject to this chapter, liens or encumbrances shall arise or be created only against each unit and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to such unit, in the same manner and under the same conditions in every respect as liens or encumbrances may arise or be created upon or against any other separate parcel of real property subject to individual ownership, provided no labor performed or materials furnished with the consent or at the request of a unit owner or his agent shall be the basis for the filing of a mechanic's lien against the unit or any other property of any other unit owner not expressly consenting to or requesting the same, except that such express consent shall be deemed to be given by the owner of any unit in the case of emergency repairs thereto. Labor performed or materials furnished for the common areas and facilities, if authorized by the association of unit owners, the manager or board of directors, pursuant to the declaration or bylaws, shall be deemed to be performed or furnished with the express consent of each unit owner and shall be the basis for the filing of a mechanic's lien against each of the units and shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (b) of this section.

(b) If a lien against two or more units becomes effective, the owner of any such unit may remove his unit and his percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant to his unit from the lien by payment of the fractional or proportional amount attributable to his unit. Such individual payment shall be computed by reference to the percentages appearing in the declaration. Subsequent to any such payment, discharge or other satisfaction, such unit and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant thereto shall thereafter be free and clear of the lien so paid, satisfied or discharged. Such payment, satisfaction or discharge shall not prevent the lienor from proceeding to enforce his rights against any unit and the percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities appurtenant thereto not so paid, satisfied or discharged.

Sec. 47-83. Insurance of building. The manager or board of directors shall, to the extent required by the declaration, bylaws or direction of a majority of the unit owners, insure the building against loss or damage by fire and other hazards, without prejudice to the right of each unit owner to insure his own unit for his own benefit. Such insurance coverage shall be written on the property in the name of such manager or the board of directors of the association of unit owners, as trustee for each of the unit owners in the percentages established in the declaration. Premiums shall be common expenses.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 24.)

Sec. 47-84. Repairs. Except as hereinafter provided, damage to or destruction of the building shall be promptly repaired and restored by the manager or board of directors, using the proceeds of insurance, if any, on the building for that purpose and the unit owners shall be liable for assessment for any deficiency; provided, if there is substantially total destruction of the property and three-fourths of the unit owners vote not to proceed with repair or restoration, the property remaining shall be deemed to be owned in common by the unit owners, and each unit owner shall own that percentage of the undivided interest in common as he previously owned in the common areas and facilities. Any liens affecting any of the units shall be deemed to be transferred in accordance with the existing priorities to the percentage of the undivided interest of the unit owner in the property; and the property shall be subject to an action for partition at the suit of any unit owner, in which event the net proceeds of sale, together with the net proceeds of the insurance on the property, if any, shall be considered as one fund and shall be divided among all the unit owners in accordance with their interests therein, after first paying all liens out of each of the respective interests.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 25.)

Sec. 47-85. Actions between unit owners. Without limiting the rights of any unit owner, actions may be brought by the manager or board of directors, in either case in the discretion of the board of directors, on behalf of two or more of the unit owners, with respect to any cause of action relating to the common areas and facilities, or more than one unit. Service of process on two or more unit owners in any action relating to the common areas and facilities, or more than one unit, may be made on the person designated in the declaration to receive service of process.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 26.)

Sec. 47-86. Owners, tenants and employees bound by chapter. (a) All unit owners, tenants of such owners, employees of owners and tenants, or any other persons who may in any manner use property or any part thereof submitted to the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to this chapter and to the declaration and bylaws of the association of unit owners. (b) All agreements, decisions and determinations lawfully made by the association of unit owners in accordance with the voting percentages established in this chapter, the declaration or bylaws, shall be binding on all unit owners.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 27.)

Sec. 47-87. Liability for mortgages, liens and assessments on conveyance of unit. (a) At the time of the first conveyance of each unit, every mortgage and other lien which is due and payable affecting such unit, including the percentage of undivided interest of the unit in the common areas and facilities, shall be paid and satisfied of record, or the unit being conveyed and its percentage of undivided interest in the common areas and facilities shall be released therefrom by recorded partial release.

(b) In a voluntary conveyance the grantee of a unit shall be jointly and severally liable with the grantor for all unpaid assessments against the latter for his share of the common expenses up to the time of the grant or conveyance, without prejudice to the grantee's right to recover from the grantor the amounts paid by the grantee therefor. Any such grantee shall be entitled to a statement from the manager or board of directors, setting forth the amount of such unpaid assessments against the grantor, and such grantee shall not be liable for, nor shall the unit conveyed be subject to a lien for, any unpaid assessments against the grantor in excess of the amount therein set forth.

Sec. 47-88. Removal of property from application of chapter. Resubmission of property. (a) The unit owners may remove a property from the provisions of this chapter by recording an instrument to that effect, containing the signature of ninety per cent of the unit owners, provided the holders of all liens affecting any of the units consent thereto or agree, in either case by recorded instruments, that their liens be transferred to an undivided interest in the property.

(b) Upon removal of the property from the provisions of this chapter, the unit owners shall be deemed to own the property as tenants in common with undivided interests in the percentage of undivided interests previously owned by such owner in the common areas and facilities.

(c) The removal provided for in this section shall not bar the subsequent resubmission of the property to the provisions of this chapter.

(1963, P.A. 605, S. 14, 15; 1971, P.A. 813, S. 13.)

Sec. 47-89. Incorporation. Appeal from board of tax review. (a) The association of unit owners charged with the administration of property under the Unit Ownership Act may be either a stock corporation formed under the general corporation laws of the state of Connecticut or a nonstock corporation formed under the general corporation laws of the state of Connecticut or an unincorporated association.

(b) Such association may appeal from any decision of the local board of tax review on behalf of all owners of the property in accordance with the provisions of sections 12-118 and 12-119.

(1969, P.A. 716, S. 1; 1971, P.A. 211; 813, S. 14; P.A. 73-514.)

Sec. 47-90. Effect of rule against perpetuities and rule restricting unreasonable restraints on alienation. The rule against perpetuities and the rule restricting unreasonable restraints on alienation shall not be applied to defeat any provision of this chapter or any declaration, bylaws or other document executed in accordance with this chapter.
